BOOK SYNOPSIS

This book is about birth to death and everything between, about what matters in our daily living. What drives our life and what changes our reality, what is considered as habit and how we choose to survive, it is the survival kit, it is the facts that we encounter in our existence, the beliefs and the moral understanding of our daily routine. What do we do without thinking and what we should do without encouraging and reinforcing of others. What is important and what not, who to listen, how to lead or follow and when do we use our God-given intelligent, knowledge, education and experiences. It is about life and living in the surrounding with design. How far we should go and for what reason. What matters and what they want us to matter. And the different. It is reality that we should acknowledge, it is the facts that might not be facts.. It is the wake up call for all the people that living and doing the routine without thinking, without using the whys. This book is the coach that sees the players mistake, what they should do to win the life's game and win the trophy. From start to end there is something we all have to know that no one teaches us the game and life forces us to play the never-ending cycle of the game. How far we have to go and how much we need to know what is right and what is not, who is telling the truth and who is not on our side. This book is the life experience of the man that looking from outside and sees that reality that should be told, without consequences of being called the liar and trader. In reality there are facts. Good and bad, the truth and the fiction. This book speaks from the heart of the known and unknown facts. Speak softly and judge not, that was the lesson, judge and find the facts and the reason comes. What we need to teach so the future of our kids be much brighter than our generation. This book is about the birth and death of the child, the abusive fathers, the pregnant young mothers, the heart-breaking of divorce parents, the challenge of teenagers, It is about God and his gifts to us, the small and big present that we receive in every breath of our being. It is about religion and the end of our existence. It is about The nature and the beauty of our surrounding, the happy side of the relationship and the heart-breaking of our falls. We watch birds, we watch movies, we watch enemies to learn their mistake but never watch ourselves to learn for more realistic and happier living. Watch yourself, watching you, you'll be happy you did.
